

NORTH AMERICA AND THE RESULTS OF GATT'S URUGUAY ROUND

ABSTRACT

In the context of multilateralism and regionalism, this paper analyzes in general terms the legal compatibility in the trade of goods and services between the North American Free Trade Agreement (NAFTA), and the new World Trade Organization (WTO) rules for non exclusive jurisdiction contemplated in no. 1 of article 2005 of NAFTA. In this order of ideas, a brief review of the Understanding dealing with rules and procedures that govern the Dispute Settlement in the WTO is made.
